SHERIFF'S SALE:

NO PENALTIES ARE EXACTED IN THE
KATY LITIGATION

AUSTIN, TEXAS—Penalties will not be exacted by the Katy in the settlement of the merger suit, according to information obtained recently. This had been a question about which there had been some doubt, due to the large amount that had been sued for by the State.

The State, however, under the agreement reached has forced a complete divorce of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, of Kansas, known as the parent company, from the Texas Katy.

This was one of the main issues of the case and one which is calculated to result in much benefit to the state.

Other large items of indebtedness which has been charged up by the parent company against the Texas Company are to be eliminated.

These are some of the terms of the agreement which will be made public when the decree has been filed in the district court here, probably Monday or Tuesday.

THE COMMISSIONERS ARE STILL WORKING

The Commissioners' Court was engaged Thursday in making a list of election officials, then they had a two-hour session with commissioners. They are discussing a proposition to assess a cent on an acre of land to pay off all claims against the road and bridge fund.

The county is now well supplied with steel bridges and there are no debts against them. Their belief is that the money to finance bonds to take care of these claims rather than to carry them along as a floating indebtedness.

A Card of Thanks.
To our friends and neighbors:

We take this method of extending our sincere thanks to you all for your many acts and words of help and sympathy in our great sorrow and the loss of dear wife and mother, who passed away at 10:45 a.m. February 7, 1914.

While we know in much volition to God's will in taking our loved ones from us, we pray heaven's richest blessings upon our friends who have been so uniformly kind to us in this time of our sad bereavement.

May we all so live that we may bring comfort and consolation to each other here, and when called hence, may we all meet in the Sweet Home and Hse.

Yours in sadness
J. H. CHENSHAW and family.
